Overview

Imagine how it would feel to double the profits of your business in the next 12 months. What would you do with that extra cash flow?

Would you invest it back into the business? Pay off debts? Treat your family to a holiday? Create breathing space to develop a new product or service line? The possibilities are endless.

Now think about how you can make it happen. Does it seem daunting? Hard? Impossible? Or ... achieveable?

Today, growth is essential to the survival of your business (and your sanity!). Every industry has experienced digital disruption. Clients, customers and stakeholders have become savvy: they demand excellence, results, and ethical and sustainable practices. Government regulation and scrutiny have increased. And competition has grown fierce.

Being focussed on growth doesn't necessarily mean being focussed on money - but that is often a happy side-effect of your renewed efforts. Growth could mean inventing a bespoke solution to sit alongside your core offering, tapping into new markets, implementing a new system, or taking on a new staff member with a fresh skill set.

Our Growth Guide to propel your business to success outlines the key elements you need to consider in order to perfect your business model, build a sustainable business and increase your profit. It offers a structured way to approach growth so you can take manageable steps to change, and enjoy the journey!

The Propeller Team.

THE BIG PICTURE

Current state

Before you take any action, it's important to take stock of where your business is right now.

Consider:

- Your vision and mission
- What motivates you
- The internal culture / team dynamic
- Your team's strengths and gaps
- Your USP (compared to competitors)
- Current challenges and opportunities
- What you hoped to achieve when you started the business - and where you are now in relation to that
- · Profit and loss
- Existing systems and processes

Future state

Now you need to define your growth trajectory with concrete goals and timeframes.

Consider:

- Service goals: client satisfaction and retention
- Profit aspirations
- Expansion of services, location or team
- ESG (Environmental, social and governance) criteria
- New technologies
- Partnerships and sponsorships
- Brand identity

SOAR - the New S.M.A.R.T

You've heard about SMART goals, but what about the more contemporary and positive SOAR?

SOAR stands for Strengths, Opportunities, Aspirations and Results. It focusses on what works in your business rather than dwelling on the imagined or things that might not eventuate.

SOAR is a simple tool to use with trusted members of your team or stakeholders.

Strengths

What the organisation does well, along with its key assets, resources, capabilities and accomplishments.

- What do we excel at?
- What are our greatest accomplishments
 - What are we most proud of?
 - What makes us unique?
- What do we provide that is world class?
 What strengths are most valuable in our marketplace?
- What do we do or have that's better than anyone else?

Opportunities

Circumstances that your team could leverage for success, eg. to improve profitability, market share, or competitive edge.

- What partnerships would lead to greater success?
- What changes and trends in the market align with our strengths?
- What threats do we see that we could reframe as opportunities?
- What needs and wants are we currently not fulfilling for our internal and external stakeholders?
 - Are there gaps in the market that we could fill?

Aspirations

An expression of what you want to be and achieve in the future. A vision to build on current strengths, provide inspiration, and challenge the current situation.

- What do we want to achieve in the future?
- What should our future business look like?
 - How can we make a difference?
 - What are we passionate about?
- What strategies and actions support our perfect future self?

Results

Tangible outcomes and measures that demonstrate you've achieved your goals and aspirations.

- What measures will tell us we are on track to achieve success?
- How do we translate our vision of success into tangible outcomes?
 - How do we know when we've achieved our goals?

OBJECTIVES & KEY RESULTS (OKRs)

What's an OKR?

With your long-term destination figured out, you need to create a roadmap that helps you achieve your future state.

Many progressive businesses use Objectives & Key Results (OKRs) to not only think about their goals, but how, when, who and what it will look like when they achieve them!

OKRs are a tool to break down your yearly goals into short-term steps and objectives. This will help you feel less overwhelmed by the scale of the task ahead of you, and ensure you're constantly growing - little and often.

Take a wholistic approach to your growth, and consider setting goals that include all elements of your business: such as client care, staffing, product/service, technology, culture, business processes and pricing.

OKRs:

- Help you chunk up yearly goals into smaller quarterly objectives
- Define the results you are aiming to attain
- Allocate tasks to staff
- Are measured for success

The following pages contain examples of the OKR process in action.

How and why to grade OKRs

It's not enough to set goals and put in motion the steps to acheive them. You also need to take time to pause, reflect and review your success. By evaluating your outcomes, you can adjust and refine your actions to set fresh goals.

OKRs can be graded a simple 'Yes' or 'No' - Yes, we achieved this goal; No, we did not achieve this goal.

OKRs can also be graded on a scale from 0 - 1.0. A score of '0' means you failed to achieve the goal; '1.0' is a complete success!

OKRs should also be reviewed subjectively.

About Propeller Advisory

The force behind small businesses making a big impact.

At Propeller, we speak human (we're not your typical accounting-types). We start with your vision, not numbers. We plan for your ambitions, not your BAS deadline. We empower you to shape your own future, instead of encouraging you to stick to how it's always been done.

When you join Propeller, you become part of an enterprising business community that is ambitious about innovation and growth. Think of us as your best friends, mentors and coaches (and veeeery occasionally a nagging parent). We hold you accountable, pick you up if things get rough, help you map out your next adventure, and of course, celebrate your big wins!

If you're a small or medium business serving people through education, healthcare, fashion, fitness, design, creative industries or professional services - you're in good company with Propeller!
